Location

This specialist optical manufacturing business is currently being run from home by our client in the desirable area of Solihull, West Midlands. The business is such that it could be easily re-located anywhere within the UK and is being offered as business only. Our client currently offers services within a 40 mile radius of Solihull and therefore it would be beneficial for any new owner to have the ability to continue servicing the area. Solihull is a heavily populated residential area which provides our client with a high level of regular and repeat trade. There is a wealth of industry in the town and Birmingham city centre is only 5 miles away making this a very accessible location. Solihull is accessed via the A41 connecting to the M42 and beyond.

Business History

Online Business Sales are delighted to offer to the market this specialised eyewear manufacturing business which was established by our client over 25 years ago. Only now is our client reluctantly offering the business to the market due to his desire to take well deserved retirement. Since the business was established, our client has continually added new lines and processes which have enhanced the business massively. We are informed that the annual turnover currently runs at £82,971 which is derived from offering a spectacle / eyewear finishing service whereby opticians send the prescription and the frames to our client who then cuts the lenses, fits the lenses and return the finished spectacles to their customers and a bespoke manufacturing service. Our client generally specialises in high value work and has a strong reputation within the industry. He enjoys a high level of regular and repeat trade and works with large businesses, small business and individual customers. There is scope to offer a wider range of products such as prescription sunglasses and to create a professional website which may increase income. This business may suit an optician as a 'bolt-on' who would be able to manufacture spectacles on site offering an all-in-one service. This is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a well established, highly reputed business which is re-locatable within the UK and as such viewing is highly recommended as specialist business of this calibre which offer such flexibility rarely stay on the market for long.
