Location

Located in the market town of Oswestry the business is well placed to serve customers in Shropshire, Cheshire and North / Mid Wales. The business operates from a small but extremely well-located premises in the centre of Oswestry, with good footfall and excellent parking facilities.

Business History

Established in 1995 the business has always focussed on the bridal trade – supplying bespoke engagement and wedding rings to local and national customers. Originally established to serve a small number of “trade” clients, the business now focuses on retail sales. With an enviable reputation and a high level of repeat business this sale represents a wonderful opportunity to purchase a true lifestyle business with a strong foundation. The existing profile can be expanded in numerous ways to increase both turnover and profitability. This sale represents a genuine turnkey opportunity to generate profit from day one and purchase stock at an historical value. After 25 years of growth and fine-tuning, the business is now an extremely efficient and profitable entity. It is with great regret and frustration that the current owner operator is now forced to retire.
